16th June 2023

Dear Families,

Summer Fayre

Our Summer Fayre will begin tomorrow at 11.30am. If children have been practising for the opening routine, they should arrive at the pedestrian gate at 11.20am where a member of staff will let them in. Thank you.

The gate will open prior to the short opening dance so that you can stand in front of the hedge at the top of the school field to watch. The Fayre will then be open for you to enjoy the stalls, games and have a lunch or refreshments in our 'Hollywood' Café.

Thank you so much to everyone who has volunteered to help tomorrow, either by looking after a stall or by setting up and clearing away afterwards; please arrive at school at 9.30am to start preparations if you have offered help. Once any items you need have been unloaded, cars should be driven out of the school grounds and parked elsewhere. No vehicles will be allowed into or out of school from 9.30am until the end of the Fayre.

A Summer Fayre plan will be sent home with your child today if you have already volunteered to help, together with a copy of our Risk Assessment.

Tickets for the Grand Draw will be available to buy at the Fayre tomorrow; if you have any tickets - sold or unsold - to hand in, please bring them with you down to the stall.

We really look forward to seeing you tomorrow.

Year 6 Leavers' Mass

Mass for our Year 6 leavers with Canon Matthew will take place on Wednesday 19th July at 10.30am in church. All families and friends are very welcome to attend.

Paper Copies of Reports

Your child's report will be added onto our Learning Platform – DB Primary – for you to see before the end of this term. If you would like a paper copy, could you please email admin@stnorbertscrowle.co.uk to request this. Thank you.
